Apply as a Seminar Assistant!

The European Forum Alpbach (EFA) is an interdisciplinary platform for science, politics, business and culture. It stands for dialogue across the generational, ideological and cultural divides.

Have you already been a scholarship holder in Alpbach? Did you enjoy the Seminar Week and now you would like to get more involved in terms of content and organisation?

Join us again as a Seminar Assistant for the opportunity to support the Seminar Chairs and be part of turning a small Austrian village into Europe’s capital of purposeful argumentation and debate.

Seminar Assistant Scholarship Overview

Your tasks:
1. Making an active contribution to the delivery of the seminar programme;
2. Providing logistical and administrative support for the successful delivery of the seminar;
3. Acting as the communication link between the seminar and the EFA office;
4. Producing a creative report of the seminar;
5. Participate in our buddy kick-off event in Alpbach on August 18, 2020.

Your profile:
1. You have already been a scholarship holder at the EFA & you are not older than 35 years;
2. You hold at least a bachelor degree;
3. You have experience of or are interested in a range of methods of teaching and learning;
4. You have a specific interest in the themes of seminars you wish to support;
5. You are willing to support your assigned seminar in a variety of ways;
6. You can stay at the Forum for a minimum of 12 days.
Your benefits:
1. You will expand and deepen your Alpbach experience;
2. You will be a key part of the Alpbach community - with connections to the Forum Alpbach Network (FAN) and the Alpbach Buddies;
3. You will be supported throughout your responsibilities by Prof. Howard Williamson;
4. You will have the opportunity to be involved in the EFA programme throughout your stay;
5. You will have a side programme of activities tailored to your needs.

How to apply:

You can apply via the EFA online application platform between February 17 and March 31, 2020.

Required

Online application form:
1. Please add details about professional and extracurricular experiences with relevance for the Seminar Assistant Scholarships (e.g. your experience in a teaching or teaching assistance position).
2. As you will see in the online application form, your motivational statement consists of two parts. Part 1 demands you to reflect about yourself, whereas part 2 requires you to write a short essay on a given topic. Please make sure to relate the questions posed in part 1 of the motivational statement to your Seminar Assistant application specifically and indicate which 3 seminars you would prefer to support (including a short explanation for each) and which 5 seminars you are NOT interested in at all. You may mention only the number of the seminar, instead of each seminar title.
